Property Summary

Situated in the highly desirable village of Welton, this beautifully presented three bedroom semi detached home has been thoughtfully extended and tastefully decorated throughout, creating a spacious and versatile family home ready to move straight into.

The ground floor has been significantly enhanced by a rear extension, providing a superb open plan reception and dining area that offers the perfect space for both everyday family living and entertaining. The property also benefits from a modern fitted kitchen with ample storage and workspace, meanwhile the ground floor shower room adds further practicality and convenience.

To the first floor are three well proportioned bedrooms, with the impressive principal bedroom particularly generous in size thanks to the double storey extension. A separate playroom/study provides an ideal space for those working from home or children's activities, offering flexibility to suit a variety of lifestyles. The family bathroom completes the first floor accommodation.

Externally, the property continues to impress with off road parking for multiple vehicles to the front. To the rear is a particularly generous garden, perfect for families and outdoor entertaining, featuring a versatile outbuilding complete with power and lighting, making it ideal as a home office, workshop, gym, or additional storage.
