Property Overview

Peacefully positioned on a quiet lane within the highly desired village of Boughton is this stone built four bedroom detached family home which has been heavily improved and extended by the current owner. With the original property dating back to 1680, the house boasts character features including exposed beams and an inglenook fireplace, en suite to master bedroom, study area, double garage and a mature enclosed rear garden. In brief the accommodation comprises entrance hall, WC, dining room, living room and kitchen breakfast room. First floor landing with study area, bedroom one with en suite, three further doubles and a family bathroom. Outside to the front is a front garden with gravelled beds and a generous driveway that leads toward a double garage. The rear garden is fully enclosed by a stonewall and mainly laid to lawn with mature bedded borders and a paved patio area. There is an additional and secluded side garden laid to lawn and with a greenhouse. EPC Rating: D
