Property Summary

Situated in the highly desirable village of East Haddon, this individual detached property offers beautifully presented accommodation with a stylish and contemporary loft style interior.

The property has been thoughtfully designed, with an impressive stainless steel and wood staircase providing a real focal point and creating a wonderful sense of space and character.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall/utility area, double bedroom with fitted wardrobes and a modern bathroom with shower to the ground floor. The staircase leads to the first floor, which opens into a stunning open plan living space incorporating a contemporary fitted kitchen, living room and dining area, together with a second double bedroom with built in wardrobes.

Further benefits include a private rear garden, double glazing, gas radiator central heating and off road parking.

Located within the sought after village of East Haddon, this unique property offers a fantastic combination of contemporary living, generous accommodation and a desirable village setting.
