Property Summary

An attractive and thoughtfully extended three bedroom semi detached home, ideally situated on Northampton Road in the popular village of Harpole. Offering well presented and versatile accommodation, this charming property combines traditional character with modern family living.

The ground floor provides a welcoming living room, a generous dining area and a well appointed kitchen, with the extension creating valuable additional living space. Upstairs are three bedrooms, complemented by a stylish family bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from a substantial, long rear garden, providing an excellent space for families, entertaining and outdoor relaxation. The front offers ample off road parking, adding further practicality to this appealing home.

Located within this highly regarded village, the property is well placed for local amenities, countryside walks and convenient access to Northampton and surrounding areas.

An excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a spacious, extended three bedroom home with a particularly impressive garden.

EPC Rating: TBC. Council Tax Band: C.
