Property Summary

Situated on a generous corner plot in the popular area of Kingsley, Northampton, this three bedroom end of terrace property offers well proportioned accommodation, excellent outdoor space and exciting potential for future enlargement, subject to the necessary planning consents.

The property is approached via a front garden providing off road parking, with the additional benefit of wide side access leading through to the rear garden. This side access and the property's corner position could provide an excellent opportunity for a substantial extension, subject to the relevant planning permissions and consents.

Internally, the accommodation begins with an entrance hall, with stairs rising to the first floor. The lounge is a comfortable reception room and features a door leading into an internal lobby area. From here, there is access to a useful pantry/storage space and understairs cupboard, before continuing through to the kitchen. The modern shower room is conveniently situated off the kitchen.

To the first floor are three reasonable-sized bedrooms, providing flexible accommodation for families, couples or those requiring additional space for a home office or hobbies.

Externally, the rear garden is a particularly notable feature and is currently divided into two separate sections by fencing. The main garden provides a good-sized outdoor space, ideal for families, entertaining and enjoying the warmer months. Beyond the secured section is an additional area of land which is accessed via Romany Road and currently houses a garage/outbuilding, together with further useful garden space. The overall plot offers considerable scope for a new owner to make the most of the property's outside space.

Further benefits include gas central heating and no onward chain, to add value.
