Property Summary

Nestled in the highly sought after and affluent village of Everdon, this charming two bedroom Northamptonshire sandstone cottage beautifully blends traditional character with modern living.

Showcasing an abundance of original features, including exposed beams, natural stonework, and timber detailing, the property exudes warmth and authenticity throughout. The ground floor has been thoughtfully and luxuriously presented, featuring a bespoke fitted kitchen complete with integrated appliances, alongside a stylishly renovated bathroom finished to a high standard.

The inviting dual aspect layout, allowing for plenty of natural light, and is centered around a characterful log burning fireplace with exposed stonework. This welcoming space flows seamlessly into the conservatory/dining area, creating an ideal setting for both relaxing and entertaining.

Upstairs, the property offers two generously sized double bedrooms, each continuing the home's charming aesthetic.

This delightful cottage is a rare opportunity to acquire a character filled home in one of the area's most desirable village locations.

EPC Rating: TBC. Council Tax Band: B.
